Rooted in Davao. Growing together.

Illustrative concept photo

One farm story. Three distinct directions.

Choose how the cooperative should introduce itself: a memorable experience, a human story, or a confident product presence.

Shared across all three directions

- A clear cooperative introduction
- Purple yam and growing stories
- Partner farms with ID / QR lookup
- Desktop and mobile layouts

01

From Root to Story

Botanical & immersive

02

Grown Together in Davao

Warm & people led

03

Purple to the World

Bold & buyer focused

From Root to Story

Plant an ube root, follow its vine into the sky, then discover the cooperative and its farms on connected leaves.

WHY CHOOSE IT

The most memorable interactive experience.

DESIGNED FOR

Visitors, buyers and anyone discovering the farm.

COLOR DIRECTION

Plant. Grow. Discover.

The same plant connects the introduction, farm lookup, stories, partner farms and leadership.

- 1 Root drops into the soil
A purple yam drops beside the green trellis.
- 2 Vine grows to the lookup leaf
The vine grows upward to the tip-leaf farm search.
- 3 Stories unfold during descent
Scroll down through company, growing and harvest stories.
- 4 Partners and leadership resolve
Lower leaves reveal partners; the root becomes the leadership board.

Grown Together in Davao

A warm editorial website that introduces the cooperative through its people, Davao setting and shared growing story.

Concept preview · proposed motion

Desktop opening · illustrative photography

Mobile opening

WHY CHOOSE IT

Builds trust through people and place.

DESIGNED FOR

Cooperative partners, local communities and buyers.

COLOR DIRECTION

Let the people lead the story.

Proposed scroll behavior. These previews show composition and content; photography is illustrative.

01 People & place

The opening arch reveals the field. Photographs and headlines move on separate planes, then settle for reading.

02 A connected growing story

A thin vine line leads into the soil, vine and harvest chapters. Each chapter arrives with a gentle upward reveal.

03 Meet a partner farm

Farm cards lift into place. Entering an ID, scanning a QR or choosing a partner opens the same farm profile.

Purple to the World

A confident purple identity that brings the crop forward, then connects visitors to the people and farm information behind it

Mobile opening

WHY CHOOSE IT

Makes the product and farm information easy to discover.

DESIGNED FOR

Prospective buyers and international partners.

COLOR DIRECTION

Put purple yam in the spotlight.

Proposed scroll behavior. These previews show composition and content; photography is illustrative.

01 The crop comes forward

The large yam turns slightly as the hero gives way to clear product and origin information.

02 Roots connect to growers

Purple and pale sections exchange focus. Grower photography enters as one bold visual panel.

03 From interest to discovery

The product journey resolves into farm lookup. ID, QR and partner links lead to the same farm profile.

Which direction fits the cooperative?

01 From Root to Story

A memorable introduction

High motion · continuous plant journey

02 Grown Together in Davao

Trust in people and place

Medium motion · editorial chapters

03 Purple to the World

Product and buyer discovery

Medium motion · bold product transitions

Starting recommendation: Grown Together in Davao

Its people and place focus makes the cooperative the center of the story. Purple to the World is a strong alternative when buyer discovery is the priority.

Choose a direction. Shape the details.

Select one overall direction. Useful details from another can still be carried forward.

☐ From Root to Story

☐ Purple to the World

Bold & buyer focused

- 01 Which design feels most like the cooperative?
- 02 Who should the homepage speak to first?
- 03 Which details should we carry into the final design?

Draft identity and content. Confirm cooperative name, member photography, farm records and leadership roles before launch.
